

NEW ALBUM: RENÉ EVALD – COPENHAGEN TIME

Songs from the front porch

On "Copenhagen Time" René Ewald presents a stylish blend of tracks. You hear nuances of blues, folk, rock and country in a sophisticated and elegant production. He adds a special flavour to the songs – and the laid back front porch spirit gets to you and fills the livingroom. Listen to "The River" or "Not Fade Away" - both refreshing and laid back at the same time. René Ewald is trendsetting in his very personal interpretations with an unpretentious and tasteful feeling as in "Sunshine of Your Love", "Poor Man".

BUM108

René Ewald has for many years been in the forefront of the danish rock, blues and folk scene and has played in every corner of the kingdom and on all the festivals including Roskilde Festival, and is a sought after session musician. Now he presents this soloproject. A singer and guitar player – with a varm and bluesy edge. He is able to give the songs, what they deserve - he makes them speak to your heart.

The mark of this album is the interesting musical arrangements and the high quality sound. A warm and yearningly atmosphere, beautiful guitars and vocals.

The musicians on "Copenhagen Time" are:

René Ewald - guitars, vocal

Jens Elbøl - bass

Jesper Grandetofte - drums and percussion

Lynge Wagner - guitar, pedal steel guitar, Dobro

Henrik Littauer - piano, accordion

Louise Støjberg - backgroundvocal
